This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 760928

Aim

The half-day workshop aims to trigger an exchange of information and ideas from different perspectives of the main topics of risk assessment and risk management of nano-biomaterials used in medical application. Project partners and WP leaders will show how BIORIMA is facing these issues, starting a lively discussion among the main stakeholders.

Target Stakeholders

- ✓ Regulators
- ✓ Large companies
- ✓ SMEs
- ✓ Consultants
- ✓ Enforcement labs
- ✓ Researchers
- ✓ Insurers
- ✓ Workers & Consumers

About BIORIMA

EU-funded project gathering 41 partners from Europe and beyond. BIORIMA started in November 2017 and will last up to October 2021.

The project main topics are:

- Advanced Nano-Biomaterials
- Fate & Exposure Scenarios
- Hazard to Human Health & Environment
- Risk Assessment & Risk Management
